HOMECOMING SPIRIT

Conference Services

Boise State Campus Operations swept the top-two spots in the 2015 Homecoming Decoration Contest! Earning the top prize was Conference Services for their live rodeo theme, including western costumes and rodeo reenactments. They used their staff's talents, resources and materials to showcase their campus pride.

In a very close second place was the Chief Operating Office with their thrift shop theme which included a sea of blue and orange merchandise and price tags of shared values.

GREAT AMERICAN SMOKEOUT

Boise State is supporting The American Cancer Society Great American Smokeout this year by organizing a campus cigarette butt clean-up event. The event, run by Environmental Health, Safety and Sustainability Director, Barb Beagles, will take place on November 19 from 2:30 to 4 p.m.

Beagles is looking for volunteers for the event to help rid the campus of cigarette butts, as well as educate individuals of the Boise State Smoke Free Campus Policy (Policy #9110).

In addition, all cigarette butts collected will be co-mingled and recycled, adding a sustainable spin on the event.

Those who would like to participate and volunteer for the Boise State Great American Smokeout activities, contact Barb Beagles (barbarabeagles@boisestate.edu).

For more information on the Great American Smokeout, visit cancer.org/smokeout.

HANNAH NEWHOUSE VIDEO REPORTS FOR CAMPUS OPERATIONS

Hannah Newhouse now represents the Boise State Campus Operations Division in more ways than one. Hannah is not only the Boise State racecar driver, but she is now a voice to the students about Campus Operations projects.

Throughout the school year Hannah will plan, film, edit and produce short videos about projects throughout the Campus

CAMPUS OPERATIONS COMMUNICATIONS

Boise State Campus Operations is increasing communication efforts by offering online, email and social media as outlets for new events and more.

The operations.boisestate.edu website has been improved and updated with new content and will continue to serve as a valuable website for division news, events, and more. Subscription to division news via email is available in the left column menu. This feature allows you to receive news as it is posted to the division website.

In addition the Campus Operations newsletter is intended to reach division staff once per month and will include stories and events about the division.

Campus Operations also has added three new social media outlets, including Twitter (@BoiseStateOps), Instagram (@BoiseStateCampusOps), and YouTube (BoiseStateCampusOps).

Story ideas, photos and video may be submitted to Michelle Railsback for inclusion on the website, in the newsletter and on social media at any time.

“BRONCOS BUCK CANCER BECAUSE...”

#BoiseState, Only a few more days to add your thoughts! Students organized Cancer Awareness... ift.tt/1P89OBO

The Boise State Student Union hosted an interactive art project on the wall at the games center in support of Cancer Awareness Month. The project was an ongoing student organized event held in October, which included a temporary, interactive chalkboard wall that invited Broncos and members of the extended community to share reflections and personal stories about breast cancer awareness, prevention and a search for the cure. The wall was titled “Broncos Buck Cancer Because...” and included space for users to write names, reasons or stories. The project was inspired by the public art project Before I Die by Candy Chang. The Boise State project asked, “Why do we buck cancer at Boise State?”

CAMPUS SHOUT-OUT!

Boise State Campus Operations would like to thank Sam Patterson, Assistant Director for Transportation and Parking Services for his above-and-beyond efforts to get the Homecoming street banners in place at the east and west campus entrances on University Drive.

Additionally, a big thank you to Facilities, Operations and Maintenance for making the entire campus festive by placing banners and flags throughout!

FOAM AT YOUR SERVICE

Boise State Facilities, Operations and Maintenance (FOAM) professionally maintains safe, functional and attractive facilities and grounds, and provides quality support services to the campus community.

FOAM director Ivan Lybarger and his team strive to deliver the best service possible. Input from the campus community is welcome - whether positive or negative - in the form of comments, notifications, suggestions or any other opportunity to improve services.

Employee Spotlight

KYLENE COLLETTE, Interior Designer

Kylene Collette joined Boise State University in September, coming aboard as an Interior Designer and is excited about the passion she sees from employees at Boise State. Kylene loves all things creative, as well as painting, gardening, camping and outdoor activities. She moved to Boise from South Africa after working as a commercial Interior Designer and creative coordinator of a nationally aired television program. She met her husband while working on a cruise ship as an auctioneer and they later married and settled in South Africa with their two kids. In 2014 the pair decided “shoot for the moon” and take on an adventure of a lifetime, by moving to Idaho. Once her husband landed a job, they had three weeks to sell all their possessions and arrive with nothing but suitcases in hand. She describes it as “the best decision we have ever made!”

Favorite Quote: “You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself any direction you choose. You’re on your own. And you know what you know. And YOU are the one who’ll decide where to go.” - Dr. Seuss
